Dear Friends,

The Bengali Association of Indiana (BAI) has the distinct privilege of inviting you to the 32nd Tri-State Durga Puja (TSDP) on October 8th and 9th 2016, at the Northview Middle School, Indianapolis, Indiana.

As Mother Nature welcomes Autumn with her variegated hues, the crisp air starts making the Bengali mind yearn for Sri Birendra Krishna Bhadra's Chandipaath, the rhythmic beats of Dhaak, the crowded streets of Bengal, the Pandal hopping in new clothes, Bhashaner Naach, Bijoyar Kolakuli- hallmarks of the 4-day long absolutely blissful experience for the Bengali psyche, which is our beloved Durga Puja.

Here in North America we may not have the Kashphool or Shoroter Megh, or the breathtaking Protima or Pandal of Maddox Square or Bagbajar, but we are making every effort to compensate for the lack of traditional infrastructure with enthusiasm and preparation. From Kolabou to Baron, Anjali to Dhunuchi Naach, Shondhi Pujo to Bishorjon, the BAI organizers are planning meticulously to ensure that Ma Durga and her children find utmost comfort during their visit to their earthly abode in our part of the world.

BAI is honored to be your host for TSDP 2016, and we are counting days to celebrate with you all.
